

Anthony Harmon

Role: Engagement Tax Manager

Firm Responsibilities: Tony is a Federal Tax Manager in KPMG's Chicago office. He has over 10 years of professional services experience managing and delivering tax products and services to both publicly and privately held Consumer and Industrial Market clients.

Experience: Prior to joining KPMG, Tony practiced transactional taxation, corporate and finance law at a Chicago law firm, and general federal taxation with another Big Four accounting firm. He has diverse client experience delivering corporate tax consulting and compliance services, as well as advising on the federal tax aspects of corporate and finance transactions, reorganizations, and international taxation. Tony also has experience representing clients during Internal Revenue Service examinations and appeals, and working with companies on FIN 48 implementation, financial statement tax provisions and Sarbanes-Oxley Act testing and compliance.

Background: Tony received a Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy from Northern Illinois University and a Juris Doctor degree from the State University of New York School of Law. He is an Illinois licensed CPA and attorney, and is a member of the Illinois CPA Society and American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Tony is a board member of the Illinois Court Appointed Special Advocate, a cook for a local homeless shelter and the past Treasurer for the Rockford Diocese Society of St. Vincent DePaul. In addition, he was a commissioned officer in the U.S. Army.
