

Dave Swinehart's Bio

Dave Swinehart is a Director on RSM McGladrey's National Recruiting Team where he sets university recruiting strategy for the firm. Dave graduated with a degree in Accountancy from Northern Illinois University in 1991 and pursued a career in public accounting at Arthur Andersen LLP, in Chicago. Dave spent five years on the audit staff and six years in the Campus Recruiting department for Arthur Andersen. In 2002, Dave joined Ernst & Young's experienced recruiting department, focusing on audit professionals in the Midwest, before joining RSM McGladrey in the summer of 2005. Dave, his wife, Kathy and children, Michael and Natalie live in the western suburbs of Chicago.