

NIU College of Business and AIESEC present: International Week 2009

Where the Classroom Meets the Business World

Tuesday, November 17

“Study Abroad 101 & How to Find Money”

Presented by

The Division of International Programs
Dean's Conference Room 5-6pm

Wednesday, November 18

Student Fulbright Workshop

Presented by

The Division of International Programs
Dean's Conference Room 5-6pm

Thursday, November 19

“Investment Climate in Turkey with Discussions on Cross-Cultural Negotiation and Dispute Resolution”

Presented by Dr. Alpaslan Korkmaz,
President, Investment Support and Promotion
Agency of Turkey (ISPAT)

Sponsored by the College of Business
BH Auditorium 6-7pm
Reception to follow

Friday, November 20

Global Village Luncheon

Hosted by AIESEC
Sponsored by College of Business

Message from the Dean:

“NIU's College of Business has kept Global Education as its number one strategic priority.

NIU students and faculty MUST find effective ways to enhance their global awareness and experience, or they will quickly find themselves left behind in a global marketplace.

International Week 2009 will emphasize our commitment to global education, and will highlight opportunities for you to prepare to face a global world. “

– Dean Denise Schoenbachler

AIESEC